[PROM THE NEW ORLEANS BULLETIN, JAN. 81.] IMPORTANT FROM TAMPICO.—By the schooner Wild Pigeon, Capt. Marr, which sailed from Tampico on the 12th, we have been put in possession of to certain passengers from California, going through Mexico, on their way to this city, and of the op-pressions and outrages practiced upon them by the mustom house officials at that port. We condense the accounts. It appears, from their statement, that J. A. Tyler, M. E. Milner, J. Jones, D. Drake and A. Kirkpatrick, citizens of the United States, left San Francisco on the steamer of the 16th Nov. for the United States. Arriving at Acapalco, they procured passports and proceeded through Mexico for the purpose of buying mules to bring to the States, but about thirty leagues from Tampico they were informed by an interpreter that their American money would be of no use in the purchase of ing to go by water to New Orleans. On the 25th of December, when about to embark on board of a schooner, they were ordered by the police to the guard house, for the ostensible purpose of having their baggage examined; but no sooner had they arrived there when they were seized and their pockets rifled of $4,743, in the presence of an armed posse, standing ready to enforce an obedience. They assured the police that the money and gold dust had been brought from California, but they were unbeeded, and the whole was confiscated, and they were left without the means of subsistence. They were waited upon by the officers of the enstoms and informed that if they would sanction, in writing, the proceedings of the police, $1,525 would be restored. Reduced to the last necessity, they consented, but entered their protest before Mr Chase, the U. S. Consul, whose official statement corroborates the foregoing.

Tampico, Jan. 12, 1853.—Gentlemen: Presuming that the events connected with the affairs of this country may interest you and your numerous subscribers, I beg to advise you of the narrow escape the quiet people of this city had from robbery and murder by a band of armed ruffians from Victoria, rascals formed part of the escort of our new Governor from Victoria to this place, who have been here several days, and during the night of the 11th inst., the queers of the regular army discovered a plan which the Victoria troops had concerted to place their own chiefs at the head of affairs, and at the same time to sack the town. At 2 o'clock this morning the troops of the regular army assailed the robbers, and in thirty minutes disarmed and confined them. Rodriguez was taken to Campo Santo and instantly shot.

The force from Victoria was composed of 200 men, all convicts and murderers. The State Government, under his excellency. Rumon Prieto, is now installed in this place, and everything is carried on under our new rulers with the same liberality as under Arista and Cardenas.

The Comercio, in its leading columns, merely says, "The manifesto of Gen. Cassanova will inform our readers of the events of last night." We are somewhat skeptical about the justice of Cassanova's revolution at Tamaulipus, and was placed at the head of the national guards instead of Cassanova, who thenceforward hated him, Later advices state that a counter movement had taken place at Tampico against Cassanova, who had subsequently left for Vera Cruz.

HYDRAULIC CEMENT .- We learn that W. B. Reese, Jr., has just discovered on the farm belonging to his father, Judge Reese, in the immediate vicinity of Knoxville, a quarry of stone which makes the very best hydraulic cement. We also learn that it is intended to have a unil erected for the purpose of preparing this article for use. This is a very important discovery, as the cement used all through this portion of the south, is brought from New York or Louisville, Kentucky, and the carriage upon so heavy an article is so great as almost to forbid its use, except where it cannot be dispensed with.

Prof. Mitchell, of East Tennesse University, has analysed the stone found by Mr. Reese, and also the article brought to this place for sale, and finds the ingredients in each to be the same, and almost in the very same proportions; and wherein they do differ makes the East Tennessee, as we are informed, a better article.—Knoxville Register.

Washington, Feb. 11.-The Postmaster General has issued a circular suspending, for three months, the order equalizing the rates of postage on all letters between the United States and France, via England. The postal convention is now in progress at Paris, and Mr. Ingersoll has been instructed to renew negotiations with England.

A letter from the frigate Congress, dated January 22, at Rio, states that the vessel was to be towed out of the river by the steamer Saranac, as the vellow fever is likely to be more fatal than ever. Lt. Heywood, of the Saranac, died at Pensacola. of fever.

"He bought a horse in Virginia, known in the Turf Register as Olympus. This he trained to present the attitude he wanted. This horse is well known in Washington now as the "model horse," He dissected horses. He studied the breed and character of different kinds of horses. He selected the various points of beauty and strength from them all, to produce the splendid bronze one he has made. As the various points of female beauty, never found in any one female, yet all perfectly natural, are found in the Venus de Medicis, so he resolved to make his horse, yet it is a perfect war-horse. He studied the character of Jackson, and the best likeness that could be found, so as to give a faithful representation of him. He took from the military dress of Gen. Jackson, deposited in the Patent Office, the model by which he clothed the hero. The very sword he wore and every minutize of the saddle, holsters, bridle and even buckles, is faithful to history. Yet there is nothing stiff or awkward in the entire group-all is true, natural and easy."

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 6 .-- We have Tampico dates of the 25th ult. The revolution was rapidly spreading through Tamaulipas, and all the adjacent States. Most of the leading officers of the regular army had pronounced in lavor of the revolutionists, and there is every indication that Arista's government will soon be overthrown.

As recently as a week ago, the President elect had occasion to state that he had not fixed upon a single member of his cabinet. He will but consult his own convenience by withholding from the publie his cabinet arrangements till after the termination of the present Congress. Meanwhile, there is a general expression of a hope that a prudent and experienced statesman will be selected for the department of State-a post that is likely to be more important than any other in the cabinet.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT .- We were show, a few days since, a counterfeit $20 note on the Union Bank, payable at Chattanooga. The general resemblance of the counterfeit to the genuine bill is such as to readily deceive the casual observer, and would be pronounced by most men a good imitation. But a closer examination, and a comparison of the two plates, at once detects the fraud; for the engraved work on the counterfeit is all coarsely executed, especially the shading of the letters in the words "Union Bank." The faces of all the female figures also have an unnatural expression, which is not so on the genuine plate. Besides, the specimen which we saw was numbered over 6,000. This branch has not yet issued 2,200 of that denomination. This may assist in detecting the cheat. It is reported that these counterfeits are quite numerous in some of the counties above; so that it is well for all to lookout. We understand also that a fellow having a considerable amount of these bills has been arrested and lodged in the jail of Polk county.-Chattanooga Advertiser, MAINE LIQUOR LAW STARTED IN TENNESSEE. The Memphis Eagle and Enquirer of date, Feb. 10th, brings us the following proceedings of a the United States Consul's proceedings, in reference | Temperance convention held at Raleigh, the county seat of Shelby. We copy the resolutions in full, that our readers may see the case as made out by the advocates of the Maine Liquor Law. It will be found the commencement of an agitation, which if, increasing as elsewhere may seriously affect the orpanization of parties. That intemperance is an evil will not be denied by any sane person, but whether the Maine Liquor Law will remedy the evil or not, is a question upon which there does exist much dispute. "Large oaks from little acorns grow," and this convention at Raleigh, a place nine miles from mules, whereupon they went to Tampico, conclud-Memphis, and having as many "groggeries" as stores, may be the seed of a revolution that will temporarily play the mischief. We say temporarily, because no "one idea" political organizations ever did have a respectable permanent existence.

It will be seen that one of the resolutions declares that the members of that body will support no candidate for the legislature who is not pledged to "prohibition," and that it rises superior "to any and every other subject that can or ought to claim the attention of the coming legislature." Internal improvements, education, arrangement of a just system of taxes, and everything else subordinate to a law prohibiting the sale of liquor, which would probably be about as efficient as the law now prohibiting the vending of liquor on Sunday! We are not aware that the Maine Liquor Law has been very effective in that State in preventing the use of alcoholic stimulants. In fact, the general current of information favors the idea that its main effect has been to make groceries the scene of grosser and more revolting excesses, than if public, and adulterate the quality of under the command of Rufino Rodriguez. These the liquor, and cause men to drink bad instead of

In truth, legislation is impotent to make people moral. All that it can do is to punish, and that it ought to do, all acts conflicting with good morals, or invasion of the rights of others. We would certainly like to see drunken, or if the phraseology is more agreeable, drinking men a thing of the pasta moral mastadon extinct before the deluge of reformations that are now sweeping over the land. We would also like to see the Millennial reign of peace and perfect bliss, and our present opinion is, that the Legislature of Tennessee is just about as likely to hasten the advent of the Millenium, as it is to prevent the sale of liquor. There are some things which can be done only by the moral influences of education, virtue, and religion. Temperance organizations, a high standard of moral sentiment, and the invariable triumph of virtue over vice are causes much more potent in eradicating intemperance, than any Maine Liquor Law that ever was, or ever will be passed. Laws can do a great deal. They can build railroads and canals. They can diffuse education. They can raise and appropriate money .-They can punish acts of personal wrong. But they cannot make public sentiment, nor be practically enforced against it.

While upon this subject we might as well announce another fact, which is, that all of these legislative moral reformations are based upon an erroneous principle. They don't touch the core of the evil they seek to destroy. France five years ago overthrew king-craft and established a republic,-She is now under an Emperor. And why? Simply because public sentiment was not equal to the requirements of self government. The true and only way to reach such evils as intemperance, is to educate the heart and head of the people. Bring the influence of public sentiment to bear against the use of ardent spirits, and its use will soon be discontinued. But until this moral influence is brought to bear, ardent spirits will be sold, both by wholesale and retail, and drank in addition, though the legislature should pass forty Maine Liquor Laws.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE TEMPERANCE CONVEN-TION AT RALEIGH.

Pursuant to previous notice, a convention of the citizens of Shelby county was this day (February 7th,) held at the Court-house in the town of Raleigh, preliminary to the State Convention to be held at the State Capitol on the 22d inst., to take into consideration, and devise ways and means for the suppression of the great evils of intemperance that are preying upon the morals and health of our State and people-it being one of the largest and most respectable meetings of the people of this county ever held in that place notwithstanding the exceeding inclemency of the weather.

On motion of Mr. E. M. Bell, Mr. D. McComb was called to act as President of the convention. and Messrs. M. D. L. Stewart, and J. B. Smith, were

At the instance of the President, after briefly explaining the objects of the convention, its proceedings were opened by a most suitable prayer, by the Rev. L. D Gray.

On motion of Col. J. T. Swayne, a committee of five were appointed to prepare a preamble and resolutions expressive of the sense of this convention, viz: Col. J. T. Swayne, Col. John Pope, H. W. Grenade, Rice Bond, and E. M. Bell, who thereupon withdrew for that purpose,

.n the absence of said committee, Mr. Cook, of Tipton, who was appointed by a convention in that county to attend the deliberations of this convention, was introduced, and, by request, addressed the convention upon the grand move making in this State, in sympathy with many other States of this

The committee returning, on motion, Mr. Cook was invited to continue his address this evening, at candle light, in this house.

And thereupon Col. J. T. Swayne, on the part of the committee, by their unanimous instruction, reported the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The State of Tennessee has legislated, from time to time, on the subject of intexicating liquors, intending to suppress or lessen the evils they produce, but without effeet; and, whereas, social organizations have been formed all over the State, for a long time, but yet those evils prevail alarmingly; and, whereas, the moral sense of the community has been invoked, time and again, by every description of argument and every kind and degree of persuasion, and, though fully informed on the subject, that, too, has proved insufficient and unagailing; Therefore,

Resolved, That it becomes the duty of the good people of this State, irrespective of parties or names, in view of the crying evils among them, growing out of intoxicating drinks and the traffic therein, as a beverage, to seek diligently for some other and adequate remedy, if perchance those evils can be suppressed.

Resolved, That it is the right of the people of this State to demand from the approaching Legislature the enactment of a Law prohibiting entirely the sale of intoxicating drinks, free from legal objections, and with adequate penalties and suitable provisions for its enforcement, while we protest against any abolishment of the License feature without the enactment of such a Law.

Resolved. That this matter is one of the highest of public interest and policy to the State, and rises superior to any and every other object that can or ought to claim the attention of the coming Legislature; and, believing the question of the prohibition of the liquor traffic of paramount importance to all ordinary political issues, we must and will regard avowed adhesion to the principle of prohibition on the ter debate, passed the Nebraska territorial bill, and part of candidates for the Legislature, as indispensable to our adjourned.

suffrages, and, hence, if compelled to sacrifice party, or surrender principle, we will not hesitate to do the former in obeisance to the latter. Resolved, That, if the next Legislature shall fail to enact the duty of the friends of the measure, in each senatorial and representative county or district in Tennessee, to combine their influence in some efficient manner, and make the question the issue in the succeeding election; while all in our sion; that, in our opinion, no really vital principle of the Mi he Law has ever been assailed in the recent judicial decisions against the anti-liquor laws of Rhode Island and Minnesota, or in the opinions of the judges of the supreme court of New Hampshire; that the right of a State to deterine, prospectively, that articles injurious to the public health or morals, shall not constitute property, and its right to protect itself from the evils of the traffic therein, by prohibatory laws, and the consequent right of seizure and destruction of the contraband articles, still remain intactyea, directly and clearly adjudicated and established in the Supreme Court of Maine-so that the friends of the cause have no occasion for despondency, and its enemies none for

Resolved, That, as concerns the State of Tennessee, we regard this subject, heretofore claiming legislative action repeatedly, as still claiming it, but in a far more effectual man ner, and as above indicated; that we hold all licenses to vend intoxicating liquors as a beverage, instead of their prohibiand, therefore, demoralizing to the public; that such is the effect of those liquors on the public health and morals, that, as a beverage, they should not be deemed property in law, or as such, be allowed to be sold; that the experience and observation of the past, in Tennessee, most fully show, that no legislation short of eradication is adequate to the end sought; and that, hence, it is the duty of the people of the State, for the sake of their sons and servants, and the public norals, to insist upon and demand such legislative action as will utterly exterminate the curse from our borders, as a beverage, suppressing drinking houses and tippling shops. Resolved, That, therefore, we highly approve the object of the great State Convention to be held at Nashville, on the 22d day of this month; and that we invoke the co-operation of all the friends of good order and the public virtue, in Shelby county and the State who feel the paramount importance of this great movement, whether those who indulge in intoxicating drinks or those who do not; that it is of the highest concern to the public, and hence, ought to be the work of the people; that we have an abiding confidence that a large majority of the citiz ms of the State are with us, in feeling and opinion, on this subject, and will be found ready and willing, at the polls, to stand by the public morals; and that we regard the present as a suitable time to begin this great reformation, in imitation of the excellent example of several of our sister States. We take occasion, especially, to commend the State of Maine as taking the lead in this philanthropic and honorable work.

Resolved, That the President of this Convention appoint - delegates to represent this county in the Convention at Nashville on the said 22d inst., together with such others, hereafter, as he may deem proper.

The adoption of said preamble and resolutions being noved and seconded, at the instance of Convention, Col. J. Swayne spoke in support thereof, and was followed by Sam'l. M. Allen, Esq., and the said preamble and resolutions were then unanimously passed, as by acclamation.

On motion of Col. John Pope, seconded by Mr. James D. Davis, the blank in the last resolution was filled with the number "thirty," whereupon the President pursuant to said last resolution, appointed the following gentlemen delegates o the said State Convention, viz :

D. McComb, J. R. Wray, H. W. Granade, E. M. Bell, S. M. Allen, Jessee S. Harris, James D. Davis, G. M. Bartlett, John Blackwell, Col. John Pope, Rev. D. L. Gray, A. O. Swayne, M. D. L. Stewart, Jas. B. Smith, L. D. Mullens.

On motion of J. B. Smith, the President of this convention On motion of H. W. Grenade, seconded, the Memphis papers and Tennesse Organ were respectfully requested to publish these preceedings. And, thereupon, on motion, the convention adjourned H. D. McCOMB, Pres't.

Insurance Case. - A somewhat peculiar Insurance case was recently decided before one of the District Courts at New Orleans. The plaintiff had taken measures to have his property, the Nyaues tion to be promotive of the evils intended to be suppressed, theatre insured in the Sun Mutual Insurance Company. The company had agreed to make the Insurance, but it was not finally consummated because the book-keeper of the plaintiff was not present at the time the Insurance Company's agent called to collect the premium. The latter, however, said that it was all right, and that he would call again. Before he did call again the theatre took fire and was totally destroyed. The insurance was claimed, but the company denied that it was responsible .-The jury, however, returned a verdict for the full amount claimed, $8,000 with interest.

Action for Damages .- An action for damages for $10,000 was commenced yesterday in the Superior Court against the New Orleans Telegraph Company, by a Mr. Randall and wife, who allege that Mr. and Mrs. R. have become cripples for life by the carelessness of the company in permitting their wires to be down on the ground in Athens county, and, as they attempted to drive over it with a horse and buggy, their horse took fright and ran away, doing them both injury for life. Corron-The market closed on Friday upon a fair enqui ry, which was continued on Saturday, when about 7500 bales were sold, at prices fully up to the previous quotations. On Monday morning the Africa's accounts, tour days later from Liverpool, were before the public, reporting a good demand at Liverpool, the sales for the week ended on the 14th uit being 45,000 bales, of which 7000 bales were taken on spec ulation and 2000 for export. It is also stated that the mar ket had recovered from the decline previously noticed, and the quotations given are 6d for Fair Orleans and 5%d for Middling ditto, the latter being 3d higher than the same grade was quoted by the Niagara and the Arctic. This in ligence was locked upon as favorable, and it imparted more firmness to holders, but they were unable to obtain any marked advance, though the demand was more active, resulting in sales of about 11,000 bales. Yesterday the demand fell off considerably, and the market presented a comparatively quiet appearance, with somewhat easier rates for the lower grades, which are neglected, the demand running mainly upon the Middling and Good Middling descriptions. for the Continent and the North. The sales were about 7000 bales; making a total for the three days of 25,500 bales, taken for France, Spain, the Continent and the North, buyers for Great Britain remaining almost wholly inactive. INFORMATION WANTED.

On the 24th December last, I placed my husband, Mr. Stephen Haynes, who is a hinatic, under the care of a Mr. Wm. Gatten, to conduct him to the Asylum at Nashville, Tenn. They left here on the steamboat Sacramento, and while lying to at Memphis, on the night of the 28th, Gatten suffered him to escape. It is not known whether he jumped overboard and was drowned, or made his escape into the country—the latter it is hoped is the case. He is at times apparently sane, and converses rationally, and in a few minutes will become very crazy. In his insane fits, he thinks himself Nanoleon Bonaparte. Had on when he left the boat, black cloth pants, blue blanket coat, black cloth vest, and black hat, craped; is 42 years of age, about feet 9 or 10 inches high, black hair and eyes, and is badly pock-marked, is a man of good education, and easy in conversation. He emigrated to this place about six years ago, from Knoxville, Tenn., and was under the impression that he was going back to that place. It is presumed that some person told him he was being taken to the Asylum, and that he determined to escape and make his way to that place by land. Should be have made his escape in this way, and should be taken up as a lunatic, or should any one hear of him, they will confer a special favor by giving me immediate notice, so that I may attend to his necessities, and have him conveyed to a place of security. JOHNSON & SMITH. NINETY TOWN LOTS WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION On Tuesday, 15th March, 1853.

THE above LOTS are in the town of STEVENSON, at the junction of the Memphis and Charleston, and the Nashrille and Chattanooga Railroads, 280 miles from Memphis, 113 miles from Nashville, and 38 miles from Chattanooga, and in Jackson county, Alabama. This place is at the point of Cumberland Mountain, situated on the margin of one of the richest valleys of Tennessee river, and surrounded by forests of the best timber in the Union, and iron and coul to an unlimited extent. The Nashville and Chattanooga railroad has been finished to and past that point from Nashville, and the part of this road between Stevenson and Chattanoo ga will be done by July next, and the Memphis and Charleston road from this point to the foot of the Muscle Shouls, a distance of 170 miles, is all under contract, and far advanced or finished, and will all be done in 10 to 18 months. The Selma road will enter the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad a few miles beyond Stevenson, and the connection at Chattanooga with the East Tennessee and Virginia reads, the Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina roads, and the Selma road this side, and with the South-west through the Memphis and Charleston road, connecting with the New Orleans and Nashville, and Mobile and Ohio railroads, and by the Nashville and Chattanooga road to Nashville with all the North and North-west valley of the Mississippi, gives Stevenson a most commanding position for a manufacturing and commercial point, and justifies, we think, the prospect of a large city.

Water, one of the vital necessaries of life, flows out of the mountain at this place in great abundance for all local purposes, and to supply any number of steam engines; and of the inest freestone and limestone. This point is healthy, and combines the scenery of Switzerland with the climate of Italy, connecting mountain and valley. The rich lands and minerals, are here in immediate contact, with all these railroads to carry the products of either to market, in any direction.

There is already a thriving little village at this place, all built in a few months, and great desire to buy on the part of parties at a distance. This sale is advertised to give all a hance at public sale, which will take place as above stated, on Tuesday, the 15th day of March next, commencing at 1 This place is, in point of railroad connection, simularly situated to Atlanta, Ga., but much more advantageously, in regard to productiveness of soil and coal and iron, which surround it, and Atlanta, now six years old, has a popula tion of over 5000 of the most thrifty people in this Union.

Persons wishing to attend this sale, can reach Stevenson daily by steamboats from East Tenneseee, South Carolina and Georgia by way of Chattanooga, and from Alabama by a daily line of steamers from Decatur, and a daily line of railroad cars from Nashville, Tennessee. One-tenth of the purchase money will be required to be paid down, or a good well secured note at not over 4 months, as may be agreed upon, and the balance in one and two years with a lien retained on the ground to secure payment. Plans will be exhibited on the day of sale. J. F. ANDERSON & CO.

BRITISH ELOQUENCE.

W. T. BERRY & CO. have just received-SELECT BRITISH ELOQUENCE-Embracing the best Speeches entire of the most eminent Orators of Great Britain for the last two centuries; with Sketches of their Lives ; an Estimate of their Genius, and Note, Critical and Explanatory. By Chauncey A. Goodrich, D. D. Professor in Yale College. In one large octave volume,

In this carefully prepared volume, we have an important contribution to rhetorical literature. Containing the speeches of the great British orators which are regarded as the master pieces of their respective authors—a memoir of each orator, showing the leading events of his public life, and the distinctive characteristics of his oratory—an historical introduction to each of his speeches, explaining the circumstances of the case, the states of the parties and the exact point at issne-an analysis of the longer speeches in side notes-and a large body of critical and explanatory no es, together with translations of the passages quoted from foreign languages, it leaves nothing to be desired as a text book of the political and forensic eloquence of Great Britain. The copious and valuable memoirs and notices by the editor, makes this less a compilation than an original work. The manner in which he has performed his task is a model of accurate and thorough aditorship. He has omitted nothing which the most exacting student could demand for the elucidation of the subjected in hand, without ever being tempted to indulge in superfluous details. A great mass of attractive information is thus presented, and in a style of singular clearness, strength and ele gance. It is rarely that such profound scholarship, sound judgment, refined taste and vigorous expression, are devoted to the critical preparation for the press of the standard production of other writers.

W. T. B. & Co. have also just received-HARPER'S MAGAZINE, 5 vols, cloth.
